

Training for Trainers

delivering “Introduction to Safeguarding” training in agencies

Introduction

Working Together 2010 suggests that all those in contact with children, young people and/or parents and carers should have induction or single agency training in basic safeguarding. This course is designed to equip single agency trainers with the skills and training materials to deliver such a course to workers in their own agency

Who is the training for?

Those who may be involved in delivering single agency safeguarding training.

Attendance Criteria

Introduction to Safeguarding

Aims

To support single agency trainers to confidently and competently deliver an “Introduction to Safeguarding” course

Learning Objectives

By the end of the course participants will be able to:

- Have reflected on what is necessary to deliver an effective training course to adult learners
- Be familiar with the LSCBN material for “Introduction to Safeguarding” training
- Have identified a range of effective presentation skills
- Have increased confidence and be more able to deal with nerves
- Have identified strategies for dealing with resistance from participants
- Have considered how they can keep their materials up to date and relevant to their particular service
